IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT ESHEAT LAWS

If no activity occurs in your account within the timeframe specified by the law in your state and/or if account statements mailed to you are returned as undeliverable during that timeframe, the ownership of your account may be transferred to your state. We strongly encourage all Oakmark shareholders to contact us via phone or log into your account online at least once each year to review your account information. It is also important to inform the Funds promptly of any significant events such as name or address changes.

Under penalty of perjury, I hereby certify that the Social Security or other Tax Identification Number (TIN) in Section 2 is correct, that I am a U.S. person (U.S. person includes a resident alien) and that I am NOT currently subject to IRS backup withholding (cross out "NOT" if you are currently subject to withholding). The Internal Revenue Service does not require your consent to any provision of this document other than the certifications required to avoid backup withholding.

Please be advised that federal law requires all financial institutions, including mutual funds, to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: In order to open an account, the Oakmark Funds will ask you to provide certain identifying information on this account application, including your full name, address, date of birth and social security number or taxpayer identification number. If you fail to provide the appropriate information, we may reject your application and all monies received to establish your account will be returned to you. After your account is established, the Oakmark Funds are required to take steps to verify your identity. These actions may include checking your identifying information against various databases. If the Funds are unable to verify your identity from the information that you provide, you may be restricted from making future purchases for, or transfers of shares from your account; or, your account may be closed and the redemption proceeds will be paid to you. You will receive the share price next calculated after the Oakmark Funds determine that they are unable to verify your identity; so, your redemption proceeds may be more or less than the amount you paid for your shares and the redemption may be a taxable transaction.
